

Jewislanity – God doesn't want the believer to enter into partnership with any openly wicked Israelite

Scripture teaches that the Creator doesn't want any God fearing believer to enter into partnership with an openly wicked Israelite. Why? Because, since God's favor isn't with the latter, the former risks being forced to share the impending punishment. As is written: "O king, do not let not the army of Israel go with thee, for יהוה is not with Israel nor with all the sons of Ephraim. But if thou wilt go, if thou wilt do it, and strengthen thyself for the battle, God shall make thee fall before the enemy ..." - 2 Chronicles 25:7-8 (Jubilee Bible 2000); And also says elsewhere- "Should thou [king Jehoshaphat] help the ungodly, and love those that hate יהוה ? Therefore, the wrath of the presence of יהוה shall be upon thee"- 2 Chronicles 19:2 (Jubilee Bible 2000)

Universal Judaism

There's only one true and godly religion: To be just, kind, and humble. As it has been written: "Turn away from evil! Do good! Then you will live in the land forever." - Psalm 37:27 (Common English Bible). And: "He has told you, human one, what is good and what the Lord requires from you: to do justice, embrace faithful love, and walk humbly with your God" - Micah 6:8.

What then is the role played by normative religion (Judaism, Christianity, Islam, etc)? Simply to try and be faithful messengers of God's true religion. And all is well and good, as long as we keep in mind the distinction between the perfect message of true religion, and the imperfect role played by it's appointed messengers.
